

The Karnak News

Howard Kerber visited school Monday.

Emma Angelshaug came home from Fargo Saturday.

Mrs. Don Healey called at Kravigs and Kallanders Monday afternoon.

John Fleber attended a blacksmith's convention in Fargo last week.

Lillian Peterson went to Page Monday to care for her grandparents who are sick.

Mrs. Ole Kravig and Mrs. C. E. Kallender did shopping in Hannaford Saturday.

Mrs. Wickham and daughter, Mrs. Olson and family came up from Fargo Saturday.

Rev. Wood will be with us again next Sunday at 3:00 P. M. Sunday School at 2:00 P. M.

Barred Rocks and B. C. Buff Orpington Cockerels for sale at $2.50 each. Fred Peterson, Karnak, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Helland were in Karnak between trains Friday. They are leaving Karnak and will make their future home in Fargo. Our good wishes go with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Benignus came home from Luverne Monday. While caring for sick relatives there they too contracted the disease. We are glad to see them out again.