

The Karnak News

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trapp and Leona leave for Rochester, Minn., tonight where Leona will receive medical aid.

Mr. A. Near was in town Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Wickham went to Coopers-town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Olson received a visit from relatives of Coopers-town Saturday and Sunday.

The services at the church Sunday afternoon was well attended. May it continue. Service at the same hour next Sunday, but Sunday School will meet at 2:00 o'clock.

The Ladbury Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Henry Ladbury last Friday. A good sleigh load from Karnak attended.

Ole Kravig is on the sick-list.

We regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Helland from their home and place of business here. It came as a shock to us all, but we will live in hopes of seeing them back here at some future time.

Howard Raising has been doing carpenter work south of town.

Miss Johnson came back Saturday to resume her school duties south of town.

Mark Curtis and Theodore came back from St. Paul Saturday, and we are glad to hear that Theodore has improved wonderfully.

Don Healey did repair work on the Curtis school house Saturday.

Mrs. Joe Griesinger left for South Dakota Thursday, where she will visit her daughter.

Rollin Freer came back to North Dakota last week. North Dakota is best.