

The Karnak News

M. Magnussen transacted business in Hannaford Monday.

O. Aaker, of Cooperstown, was a business caller here one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Haugen went to Fargo Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Curtis and son left for St. Paul Monday evening where the little boy will receive medical attention.

The Farmers Elevator Co. shipped a car of wheat to Minneapolis last week.

Ernest Pitney is reported quite sick.

Mrs. Chas. Ross is also quite sick the past week.

Rev. J. C. Wilson of Hannaford delivered a sermon to the people of Karnak on Monday evening to a large and appreciative audience, after which he presented the New Era Movement which met with a response of $67.00.

L. O. Harris left for Fargo Tuesday for a few days' visit.

Howard Raising arrived from Hankinson Tuesday and will do carpenter work in this neighborhood again this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Curtis and son returned from the Twin Cities Thursday.

There will be a Basket Social and Hard Time Party at Karnak Hall, given by the Ladies Aid, Wednesday evening, March 26. Ladies are to bring baskets with a nice supper for two. Everybody must dress in hard time clothing, so expect to be fined not less than five cents and not more than ten cents for each article or garment worn that is not considered in line with hard time apparel.

Geo. Kerber left on a trip to Fargo Friday evening.