

The Karnak News

John Wicks will do chores for Maxwell Ladbury this week.

Miss Hilda Kerber will entertain the Aid on Tuesday of this week.

Florence Peterson is working for Mrs. Kallender.

Sunday School was very well attended Sunday. May it continue.

Fred Peterson was released from jury duty and spent Sunday at home returning to Cooperstown Monday.

Ladies Aid was very well attended on Thursday in spite of the bad roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Kravig went to Fargo for medical treatment Saturday evening.

Lillian Peterson is caring for the Kravig family, while Mr. and Mrs. Kravig are in Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Helland accompanied a sister to Fargo Thursday evening, returning home Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. Seigle went through here to Luverne on No. 200. We are glad to hear that she has nearly recovered.

You will lose money positively if you do not take advantage of the remarkable bargains at Syverson's—Cooperstown Thanksgiving sale.—Now on. Lasts until November 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinn and family and Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell and Harry Ladbury expect to leave for Barnesville Monday to attend the Kinn-Ladbury wedding which occurs Wednesday.

Mrs. Don Healey arrived from Wisconsin last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Healey are settled in their new home on main street. The housewarmers watched the settling and were there Saturday evening. There is always room for a few more.