

The Karnak News

John Nolting has moved to town.

Mrs. O. C. Olson was in Coopers-town Saturday.

Earl Houghton moved to Coopers-town last week.

Mrs. C. C. Kallender returned home from Fargo last week.

John Fleber was in Cooperstown Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Heland visited with home folks at Kathryn from Saturday until Sunday.

Don Healey has built a temporary house for the winter and will move in this week.

C. R. Baker has rented the pool hall from Chas Ross and has already taken possession.

A larger attendance in Sunday School is wanted, for soon the Christmas program will be under way and we want as many as can to come and take part. So far, there has been a drawback in the basement not being finished, but hope soon now to be able to use it. So not only send your children, but come yourself as well. Sunday School at 11:00 a. m.