

The Karnak News

Mr. E. Williams, of Dazey, is building a harness shop here.

Three earloads of coal arrived in Karnak last week.

Mrs. O. C. Olson's mother, Mrs. Jacobson, is here visiting for awhile.

Mr. Youngbeck spent Sunday with the Wickham family.

The new Karnak church is ready for plastering.

We understand that John Wicks' former trade was butcher. Let us encourage him to remain in Karnak.

C. E. Kullender spent several days at Valley City last week in the interests of the Farmers Elevator here.

Mr. and Mrs. Helland received a visit from relatives of Hastings, N. Dak.

John Nolting and E. W. Trapp made a business trip to Cooperstown Saturday.

The work done at the Ladies Aid Thursday was overcasting bandages and hemming pillow slips for the fire sufferers.

Rev. Shaw, who is traveling in the interests of the Pilgrim Victory Campaign for the Congregational Church, spoke at the Ladbury school house Sunday afternoon.

---