

The Karnak News

Howard Curtis came back from his Oregon trip Friday morning.

Don Healey received his carload of household goods Wednesday.

George and Hilda Kerber called at Fred Peterson's Sunday.

John Fieber was in Valley City over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Severson expect to leave for their home in Montana soon.

Earl Houghton made a business trip to Cooperstown Friday.

Don Healey and E. W. Trapp made a business trip to Valley City Friday.

E. W. Trapp and Don Healey made a business trip to Cooperstown Monday morning.

Merle Curtis bought a rull-blooded Durham cow and calf at the sale in Cooperstown Friday.

Mrs. B. Stromme and daughter called at Olson's Wednesday. Mrs. Jacobson accompanied them home for a few days.

Buildings are moving fast into Karnak. John Kerber has moved a shed unto his lots for future use. He will begin on his house this week.

Ole Kravig went to Fargo for medical aid Saturday. Mr. Kallender accompanied him to see Mrs. Kallender who underwent an operation at the St. Lukes Hospital there

Mr. and Mrs. Seigle were taken to Valley City Friday where Mr. Seigle will take medical treatments at the hospital and Mrs. Seigle will stay with friends until able to resume duties again.

Wednesday afternoon was an exciting time for people in and round about Karnak when an Aeroplane landed north of town. Edgar Curtis, Martin Jensen and Mr. Youngbeck each enjoyed a ride and report the ride well worth the fifteen cart wheels.