

The Karnak News

John Fieber and family spent Sunday at Valley City.

Mrs. E. W. Trapp and Mrs. Fred Peterson had dental work done in Hannaford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kallender and Mr. and Mrs. Ole Kravig motored to Marion Friday evening.

Ladies Aid at Mrs. M. Nolting was well attended.

Mrs. Ole Kravig, Mrs. J. J. Hogness and Clara Olgard were in Cooperstown Saturday.

Mrs. C. O. Olson and Mrs. Fred Peterson were in Hannaford between trains Friday.

Mrs. J. Seigle called at Fred Peterson's Friday afternoon.

The Concert Friday evening was enjoyed by all, but the—well, the ones on the back seat.

The new Karnak church will be wired for electric lights this coming week. The church will soon be ready for lath and plaster.

Hans Seldal is building a cement house in the Crane-Johnson yard here. Karnak is growing every day.

Mr. Ludvig, our former agent, left for his home at Selz, and a Mr. Youngbeck has taken his place.

Mr. Arnold is drilling a well for John Kerber. Water was reached at fifteen feet.

Howard Rsing and sisters were in Dazey Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Helland are receiving a visit from a relative of Kathryn, N. D.

Four carloads of coal have arrived at this station the past week.

Ole Kravig went to Valley City Sunday to consult a Chiropractor.

Mrs. Herbert Curtis is receiving a visit from her sister, Mrs. Sargent, who has been visiting in Red Wing, Minn., and Ladysmith, Wis. She is on her way home to Havre, Mont.

The constable has been busy settling riots the past week.

Chas. Ross has a new-trailer—a wolf hound purchased in Cooperstown.

Hilda Kerber has purchased lots in Karnak and will build a home in the future.

John Wicks is at work on the new church.

Jake Kittelson shipped a carload of potatoes to a party at Fargo.