

The Karnak News

C. O. Olson and family arrived home Saturday from their trip to Minnesota.

Sylvia and Norman Kerber visited with relatives at Brantford last week.

The Corner Stone Laying of the New Karnak Church was attended by a good crowd. Rev. Wilson, of Hannaford, delivered the address.

Mr. and Mrs. Helland left for Kathryn Sunday evening to spend Labor Day.

Miss Iverson, of Valley City, is visiting friends here.

Reynard Kinn lost a valuable horse last week.

The Song Service held at Henry Curtis' Sunday evening was attended by a large crowd.

John Fieber made a trip to Galesburg last week.

Reynard Kinn has a new Dodge car.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Doty spent Sunday with Mark Curtis and family.

The threshers are at Henry Curtis' this week. Everything moves when Carl is around. Mr. Curtis reports a good crop of wilt-resistant flax.

J. Ose is shipping wheat to the Minneapolis market.

The Karnak Ladies Aid meets with Mrs. R. Kinn on Thursday, Sept. 4.

Miss Ellen Johnson called at Fred Mosher's Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams, of Blabon, drove through here Sunday evening.