

The Karnak News

Emil Magnussen is attending school at Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Helland spent Sunday with home folks.

Earl Houghton had the misfortune of spraining his wrist and will be laid up for a while.

Chas. Ross has purchased back his old place of abode and will remain in Karnak yet awhile.

John Fleber and J. Arnold made a trip to McHenry Sunday.

Mrs. J. J. Hogness was in Walum Thursday.

The Ladies Aid held at Ole-Kra-vig's Thursday was well attended.

Showers in the form of rolling pins, dish pans, blankets, brooms, etc. fell on Miss Hannah Kinn Friday evening at the Henry Curtis home. Everyone enjoyed the evening.

We are glad to hear that John Nolting and John Kerber and family will remain near Karnak.

Schools north and south of town opened last Monday, Sept. 15; favorable reports from both have been heard.

Edgar Curtis, Ernest Ladbury and Hannah Kinn motored to Marion, N. D., last Friday.

It is reported that Howard Curtis and Rollin Freer will soon take an overland trip to Eugene, Ore., where they will remain for the winter.

Howard Rising and Don Healey did some carpenter work at the Ladbury school house last week.

Mrs. Don Healey finished a five-weeks' run in Knutson Bros. cook car Sunday.

Miss Mabel Selbo of South Valley City is visiting in this vicinity.

The Ladbury Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Ed. Ladbury on Thursday.

Sentenced and hung—several rolls of wall paper at Earl Houghton's last week.