

Beatrice Ladbury has been on the sicklist the past week.

J. D. Peterson was a business caller in Cooperstown Friday.

S. W. McQuat, of Hannaford, was a business caller in our town Tuesday.

Miss Hazel Curtis visited with friends and relatives at Blabon Sunday.

Crane-Johnson Lumber Co. received another big car of lumber this week.

A painter from Luverne was in our city Tuesday drumming up business.

Swen Boe, of Hannaford, with a party of landseekers, were in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Griese left Monday for Fargo where they are visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jackson, of Hannaford, were callers at the Kallandar home Sunday.

Hilmer Carlson drove over to Finley Sunday for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Section men have been taking down the snow fences on the right-of-way the past week.

Mrs. Harry Hunter went to Luverne Saturday for a short visit at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Justin Wallum, of Walum, were visitors at Karnak a couple of hours Monday evening.

Quite a crowd from here attended the dance at Walum Wednesday night. A splended time is reported.

E. W. Trapp is tearing down his chicken house and will build one near his barn on the lots he recently purchased.

The farmers in this community are now busy in the fields. This coming week will see a great deal of plowing and dragging done.

Freeman and Mark Curtis were up to Cooperstown Friday afternoon where Mark bought a brand new Ford. He drove it back the same day.

A new pool table has been put in the Ross & Peterson restaurant and is being kept busy from early to late. It is a brand new table and sure is a dandy.

A large crowd of people from this locality went up to Cooperstown Saturday night to attend a patriotic meeting which was held in that city that evening.

A new broom has been installed at the depot.

Andy Michaelson returned Friday from St. Paul where he spent a couple of weeks on a business and pleasure trip. He left again on Saturday for Sheyenne, N. D., where he is looking after business matters.

Mrs. Josephine Mankey, of Amboy, Minn., and Mrs. Anna Mankey, of Wendell, Minn., who have been spending the past two weeks visiting with friends in this neighborhood, left Monday for their respective homes.

Mr. Clark, formerly of Hannaford, arrived here Monday and has opened up a barber shop in the Alfred Magnussen building and is now doing a brisk business. Karnak has been in need of a barber shop as nearly everybody went to the neighboring towns to get their tonsorial work done.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kallendar went to Fargo Monday evening, where Mrs. Kallendar went to consult a doctor. She has not been in the best of health for the past two months, so went to see a doctor. Mr. Kallendar returned home Wednesday morning and returned to Fargo the same day. We have not learned yet whether an operation is necessary or not. Mrs. Kallendar's many friends in Karnak and vicinity hope for a speedy recovery.