

Selmer Larson transacted business in Hannaford Tuesday.

Big dance at Karnak Hall Friday night. Everybody invited.

Miss Hilda Kerber went to Glenfield Thursday to visit friends.

Hilmer Carlson spent the day with his parents in Finley last Friday.

Hogness & Anderson shipped quite a few cans of cream last week.

C. E. Kallander was a business caller in Hannaford Thursday evening.

Margaret Fenton had a slight attack of pneumonia. We are glad to hear she is improving.

We are glad to hear Miss Florence Peterson is improving daily, and we hope to see her out soon.

Miss Hazel Curtis and Miss Selbo, both teachers, went to Hannaford Thursday forenoon, enroute to Valley City.

C. E. Kallander transacted business in Fargo Friday. He drove over in his auto and returned Saturday morning.

Nearly all the Karnak gardens are plowed up, and many little chicks are expected this week. Spring is slowly but surely coming.

Miss Laura Padness spent Saturday night and Sunday with Wickham's. They drove to Jessie Sunday and had a pleasant visit with relatives.

The doctor has removed the bandages from Mrs. Julius Haugen's arm, which was broken by a fall some time ago, and he reports the arm as healing rapidly.

Mr. Peterson's little boy was found in the barn Saturday by an older brother. He had been kicked in the stomach by a horse. It was thought to be serious at first, but he is improving.

C. E. Kallander, wife and babies, and Mrs. Kallander's mother, Mrs. Nelson, drove to Marion—Saturday evening in their car, where they had a pleasant visit with relatives. They returned Monday morning.

J. D. Peterson spent Saturday night and Sunday with his wife and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ross. They drove to Cooperstown Sunday afternoon in Mr. Ross's car. Mr. Peterson remained in Cooperstown.

Mrs. Nelson returned to Shelby, Mont., Tuesday. She has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Kallander, the past three months. We are sorry Mrs. Nelson cannot make her home in Karnak as she was well liked by all who knew her.

Mrs. Williams and sister, Hazel Curtis went to Hannaford on No. 200 Saturday to visit Mrs. Mark Curtis, their aunt, who is very low with pneumonia. Mr. H. Carlson happened to be in Hannaford with his car that evening and brought them home.