

S. P. Clark transacted business in Hannaford Tuesday.

J. A. Carlson and Miss Emma Williams spent Sunday at Finley.

J. D. Peterson and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ross.

Mr. Krueger, who has been doing auditing for the Farmers Elevator Co., left for Dazey Tuesday morning.

Mrs. C. A. Groven, who has been visiting H. C. Johnson and family, returned to her home at Moorhead Thursday.

The Great Northern R. R. Co. is erecting a permanent snow fence along the north side of the right-of-way at Karnak.

Mr. Simmons, manager of the Farmers Elevator Co. at Luverne, was in town a few hours Sunday, the guest of C. E. Kallander.

Chas. Ross and family, Miss Laura Fadness, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Peterson and Ole Kravig took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Chr. Minch.

A Mr. Mile, a carpenter from Luverne, is building a tool shed near the blacksmith shop for the purpose of housing tools that belong to the township.

Miss Pauline Loge, who is employed in Fargo as a trained nurse, returned home Tuesday to spend her annual vacation with her mother, Mrs. S. Loge.

The dance at Karnak Hall was well attended as usual last Friday, and everybody had a good time. Among out of town visitors was Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson of Binford.

The Red Cross met at St. Anthony Elevator Co.'s residence Tuesday as usual, and again with Mrs. J. A. Clawson Friday evening. It is not known just where they will meet next time.