

The Karnak News

Bert Law left Saturday for Chicago enroute to his home in Indiana, where he will visit his parents during the holidays.

M Magnussen was a business caller in Hannaford Saturday.

Howard Raising left Saturday for Hankinson, N. D., where he will spend Christmas with his sisters. Mr. Raising will return to Karnak and we hope to have him in our neighborhood next year.

Mrs Jacob Kittelson was Christmas shopping in Hannaford last Saturday.

J. D. Peterson and wife of Cooperstown are here to spend Christmas with Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr and Mrs. Chas. Ross.

Howard Curtis, who has been attending school in Fargo, arrived home Monday to spend Christmas.

Edgar Curtis and his cousin, Mr. Stewart, returned from Fargo Monday where they have been visiting friends and having a good time.

Miss Lula Stewart was shopping in Hannaford Saturday.

Mrs Don Healey left for Valley City Monday to spend Christmas with her husband who is employed at that point.

Mrs. Johnson, who has been sick from flu and other ailments was taken to the hospital at Fargo Thursday. We haven't heard as yet how she is getting along but hope she will be O. K. soon.

Julius Haugen's family are getting better which is indeed good news to the entire community.