The Ladies of this vicinity met in the Karnak Hall Thursday and organized a Ladies Aid. It will begin work with nineteen members. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Nolting, president; Mrs. Harding, vice-president; Mrs. Trapp, secretary, and Mrs. Fred Peterson, treasurer. A committee of three, viz: Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Kravig and Mrs. R. Vance were appointed to superintend the entertainments. They are to meet the first time with Mrs. Hall on Feb. 6th. This is the first step towards erecting a Presbyterian church in Karnak and we hope every one will lend a helping hand to this good work.

Don't forget the big dance in Karnak Hall Friday, Jan. 31st. Mr. Howard Olson, of Cooperstown and Mrs. C. E. Peterson of Binford are to furnish the music. Mr. Olson is just back from France and will give an entertaining little talk on his experiences. This is the first dance since last fall and a large crowd is expected.
