

Mrs. A. Magnuson went to Fargo Thursday to see a dentist.

Miss Mary Kerber of Minneapolis has been visiting her parents since Sunday.

Mrs. O. C. Olson returned Wednesday from Cooperstown where she had been visiting friends.

J. A. Carlson, president of the Karnak State Bank, spent Sunday with his family at Finley.

Mr. and Mrs. Magnussen and Mrs. J. J. Hogness drove to Valley City Wednesday to attend the Fair.

A. M. Nelson of Minneapolis representing the Atwood Larson Co. was in town between trains Monday.

John Fieber and family drove to Spiritwood Lake fishing Sunday and report a good time and plenty of fish.

Mrs. Arthur Thompson and baby and Mrs. T. P. Vigessaa and children are visiting friends at Juanita this week.

J. J. Hogness has received a brand new up-to-date display counter and has already installed same in his store.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ross and daughter Verona and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Griesinger attended the Fair at Valley City Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kerber and daughter Hilda left for St. Paul Monday night to consult a specialist in regard to Mr. Kerber's health.

Mrs. E. W. Trapp and daughter Leona returned from Hankinson Sunday where they have been visiting Mrs. Trapp's mother, Mrs. Brocken.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ross and J. A. Clawson and family drove a dickens of a long way Sunday looking for gooseberries. It is needless to add that they did not find any.

The Kaiser made his appearance among Mr. Trapp's chickens a few nights ago. He appeared this time in the form of a weasel cutting the throats of several nice young chickens.

Mrs. H. E. Jackson and daughter Fredricka arrived Sunday morning from Des Moines, Ia., to join her husband who has located here and at present is employed at the Crane-Johnson lumber yard.