

Mrs. J. Skanfel is visiting in Fargo

Private M. E. Wickham visited in Hannaford Wednesday.

Mrs. L. P. Waller was shopping in Cooperstown Wednesday.

A. Magnussen transacted business in Hannaford Wednesday.

We are sorry to hear Mrs. C. E. Kallendar is on the sick-list again.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Houghton have accepted a position with Mr. Mark Curtis.

Mrs. Francis Johnson and Mrs. Oscar Johnson went to Fargo Wednesday.

Mrs. L. P. Waller of Heimdal, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Clawson.

Miss Hazel Curtis and Miss Mabel Selbo gave a picnic to their pupils in the grove Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kallendar visited Mrs. Jackson in Hannaford on Thursday evening.

Private M. E. Wickham left Thursday afternoon for Camp Dodge. We hope to see him safely home in the near future.

A dance will be given in Karnak Hall, Friday, June 7th. The Dazey Orchestra has been hired to play for the occasion.

The Red Cross Sale given in Karnak was certainly a success, despite the rain and mud. The sale amounted to $546.81.

Misses Betty, Agnes and Jennie Vigesaa went to Fargo Wednesday to attend the graduation of their sister Gudrid Vigesaa.

Don Healey has gone to Cooperstown where he expects to make his future home. Mrs. Healey will remain in Karnak a few weeks. We are sorry to see these good people leave us. Karnak has always known where to find a friend in time of need or trouble during their short stay here. The entire community The entire community joins us in wishing them success in their new location.

Karnak and vicinity extends its heartfelt sympathy to S. P. Clark in the loss of his wife, Mrs. Mary E. Clark. Mrs. Clark was sick only a very short time. She died last Saturday evening at six. She had contracted quick pneumonia in both lungs. Funeral services were held in Karnak Hall Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. C. Wilson of Hannaford, and the body was laid to rest in Hannaford cemetery. Mrs. Annie Jackson, of Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs. Ola Miller, of St. Paul, both daughters of Mrs. Clark, attended the funeral. Mrs. Miller returned to St. Paul Thursday afternoon.