The dance at the hall Thursday night was well attended and everybody had a good time. The music was splendid.

Rainerd Kinn is having an up-to-date chicken coop erected this week. This will be one of the best in this part of the country.

Miss Hazel Curtis and Miss Selbo went to Hannaford Friday and remained until Saturday and attended a school convention.

Albert Larson received three head of registered cattle by express last Friday, and have placed them on his fine farm east of town.

We didn't get around to write up any news last week as the play which was given last Thursday night kept us on the jump every day. After this we will try to get news in every week.

On Saturday evening, March 30, the teachers and pupils of school districts No. 1 and 2 of Broadview district, are going to give a program and sock social at the hall. Each lady should bring a pair of socks and lunch for two, and the gentlemen should bring plenty of money. Don't forget the date and arrange to come.

The weather has certainly been fine the past week and many of our farmer friends have been busy dragging. Many others are busy cleaning seed and getting things lined up to put the big crop in this year. The farmers in this community will do their share to help win the war by putting in more acreage, and every available piece of land will be used in putting in crops.

A farewell party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Wednesday evening at their home south of Karnak. These people have sold their farm near here and will move to another farm near Dazey which Mr. Henderson recently purchased. The people in this community are sorry to see this esteemed family leave their midst but will wish them all kinds of success in their new home.

The ladies aid society gave their play "Cornelia Pickle, Plaintiff" at the hall last Thursday night to a packed house. The play was certainly a good one and every member had her part down fine. They have not had a great deal of practice, but they sure did good work. Besides the play they had music of various kinds and recitations which were certainly fine, and the crowd was well pleased with the entertainment. The ladies also put up a splendid supper which was greatly enjoyed by all. It is said the ladies will take the play to Hannaford in a short time and if they do, we know they will be greeted by a still larger crowd.
