

The Karnak News

J. J. Hogness received a message Tuesday stating that his mother of Cumberland, Wis., had died. Mr. Hogness has been sick for the past week or two and was not able to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Chester Jackson of Hannaford and Mrs. Simmons and children of Luverne, spent Sunday with C. E. Kallendar and family.

Ernest Pitney and family, his brother Frank and sister Hazel spent Sunday with Frank Blanchard and family.

Mr. Reimer, traveling auditor for the Great Northern R. R. Co. checked Karnak station Thursday.

Misses Margaret and Mary Fenton went to Vance Friday.

Willie Thompson while coming to Karnak in an auto for his sister, broke down on the Great Northern rail road track. By aid of the section men he succeeded in getting off the main line, where his auto is standing waiting repairs.

Dave Freeman moved his family to New Rockford Tuesday.

J. D. Feiber made a business trip to the Twin Cities the past week.

Mr. Niles is in Karnak again helping Mr. Magnussen to repair the building recently vacated by S. P. Clark.

Mr. Magnussen intends to move his family to Karnak.

E. W. Trapp has installed a hot air furnace in his General Store. A good place to buy groceries and get warm at the same time.

Axel Peterson, who recently purchased a farm in this vicinity, decided he would rather work on the section for the N. P. than farm and moved his family back to Rogers, N. D., where he has accepted his old position as foreman at that point.