

The Karnak News

Mrs. G. W. Coen returned Monday from Bedford where she went for her little boy who has been visiting relatives there.

The Karnak Grain & Fuel Co. has received a car-load of Wyoming coal. Come early and avoid the rush.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Jackson, of Hannaford took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kallander.

Mrs. Ole Kravig was shopping in Hannaford Monday.

Mrs. Ralph Vance went to Fargo Tuesday to consult a specialist. Mrs. Vance is just recovering from an attack of the flu which left her with the ear-ache. She returned home Friday morning.

We are glad to hear that Claud Ross, who has been seriously ill with the flu, is very much better.

Mrs. Don Healey, who has been nursing Mr. Claud Ross, is resting up a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Peterson.

Mrs. Clara Olgard, who has been quite sick at the home of J. J. Hogness the past week, is improving and we hope to see her behind the counter again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Ross, who left for Idaho last week, returned on account of Claud Ross being seriously ill, Tuesday morning. Now we hear that Mrs. Cal Ross is quite sick at the home of Mr. Ross's sister, Mrs. Christ Minch.

Mr. Magnussen has finished siding his residence and will move to Karnak in the near future. He is also building a barn.

Freeman Curtis is quite sick with the flu.

Mrs. Harry Hunter died at the home of her parents at Laverne Tuesday night and was buried at Valley City Friday. The entire community extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

Miss Haley, one of the Great Northern's charming operators at Hannaford, passed through Karnak one day last week for a week end visit with friends at Fargo.

Mrs. Chas. Ross, who has been quite sick the past two weeks, is able to sit up. We hope to see her out again soon.