

Mrs. Ole Kravig, Mrs. Joe Griesinger and Mrs. Chas. Ross were shopping in Dazey one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, of Cooperstown, were callers in town last Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. W. Trapp's brother, a Mr. Bracken of Hankinson, N. D., has the contract to plaster Mr. Mark Curtis's new residence south of town.

Howard Raising is doing repair work and painting at Mrs. Eva Curtis's farm.

Miss Ellen Johnson, who has been in Fargo for treatment for nose trouble, has returned home greatly improved.

S. P. Clark has disposed of part of his personal property and will spend the winter with his daughter in St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Raynard Kinn are the proud parents of a daughter, born October 8th. Both mother and babe are doing nicely.

Mr. Nelson, representing Atwood-Larson Co., at Duluth, was a business caller in Karnak one day last week.

Dave Freeman has accepted a position as brakeman on the G. N. Ry. and expects to move his family to New Rockford in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ross were called to Cooperstown Friday to the bedside of their daughter, Mrs. J. D. Peterson, who is quite sick.

Joe Griesinger is building a nice new barn on his property in the east part of town.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Harris are both down sick.

S. G. Olson has accepted a good position in Fargo and will move his family there in the near future.

Private J. Elmer Rood left Thursday for camp at Long Island. Elmer has been home on a sixty day furlough.

E. H. Peterson's family are quite sick with the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ross have decided to have a sale and go to Idaho for Mr. Ross's health. He is suffering from rheumatism.

Ernest Pitney has just completed his new barn and chicken coop.

Howard Raising was called to Cooperstown last Friday to take the examination.

The date of Calvin Ross's auction Sale is Monday, October 28th. A list of property to be sold is given in another column of this paper.