

Mrs. Joe Greisinger went to Cooperstown Saturday to consult an oculist.

C. E. Kallinder and family were guests of Mr. Simmons at Luverne Tuesday evening.

The first grain of the season arrived Friday. The yield is good and of the best quality.

David Freeman of Dazey has accepted a position as second man with the Farmers Elevator Co.

Mrs. L. P. Waller, of Heimdahl visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clawson Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. E. E. Libbes of Grass Range, Montana, arrived Friday morning for a visit with her brother, E. W. Trapp.

J. W. Williams and family and Mrs. Eva Curtis and daughter Hazel spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trapp.

Miss Ione Johnson, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Joe Griesinger, returned to her home at Pekin Tuesday.

Ole Kravig, manager for the St. Anthony & Dakota Elevator Co., spent Saturday night and Sunday with friends at Hnnaford.

The ladies of the Red Cross served lunch Tuesday evening at Karnak Hall. Quite a sum of money was realized from the sale of lunches.

Miss Laura Fadness, who has been visiting with Mrs. Chas. Ross the past week, has accepted a position on a cook car at Jessie, N. D.

Miss Estrid Leiseth and brothers Martin and Victor who have been spending their vacation with N. O. Skjeret and family returned to their home in Fargo Wednesday.

J. A. Carlson and Miss Emma Williams, president and bookkeeper of the Karnak State Bank, spent Sunday at Finley. Mr. Carlson's son, John Jr., returned to spend a week with his father.

Karnak was the scene of quite a lot of excitement Friday evening when a high-spirited team belonging to Ernest Pitney ran away with a wagon and hay frame. The team, however, was stopped by Myrl Curtis before any damage was done.