

A barn on the old Baldwin place three miles north-west of Hannaford was damaged by lightning Thursday morning. Standing in the stall was a team belonging to F. W. Kimball, who has charge of the place. The best horse was killed while the other was not injured.