

A letter to the editor from Soren Krag conveys the information that he arrived safely at Ft. Riley, and that he passed his physical examinations and was expecting to take an examination for entering the band. He stated that he liked military life and, at least what he had seen of it so far.