Sentinel-Courier: Louie Aaker, Sigvart Augren and Guy A. Lee arrived in Cooperstown on Monday of this week from Camp Dodge, Iowa. These boys are all privates in the National Army at Camp Dodge, and were granted a seven-day furlough. They expect soon to be transferred to Camp Pike, Arkansas, with a large detachment of the 352nd Infantry. The boys are looking and feeling fine, and state that they like army life, and the conditions at the camp.
