

Dazey Commercial A. J. McInnes returned to Dazey Thursday evening from the Sutton neighborhood where he had been for several days looking after the repairing of the telephone lines which were damaged by the sleet storm in that section last week. The line from Hanaford to Glenfield was nearly all broken down by the storm, but is now repaired and in working order again.