

A. J. McInnes, of Dazey, was elected president of the North Dakota Telephone association at the annual convention held at Devils Lake last week. The next convention of the telephone men will be held at Fargo.