

A. J. McInnes went down to Fargo on Wednesday evening to attend the meeting of the Secretary-Treasurers of the Federal Land Bank local associations which was held at that place on Thursday. He returned home on Friday. The local association is now becoming quite an extensive organization and a large number of loans are being made in this territory. The many advantages offered by the Federal loans are set forth in an ad elsewhere in this issue. Anyone desiring a farm loan will do well to look this ad up.—
