

...apidity which we are pleased to hear

Last Tuesday, while filling the wain with hay, Wm. Micklethun met with a serious accident. In some way the carrier became detached, fell down and struck Mr. Micklethun's head and back, thus rendering him unconscious for a long time.
At the time of this writing nothing more has been learned of his condition.
