

J M Nickerson, who for the past two years has been the local Great Northern depot agent, has enlisted in the service of the Government, and has left to take up his new duties. Jhalmer Stafney is now in charge at the depot.