

J. M. Nickerson has arrived at Camp Dix and is expected home with his discharge from the service within a few days. We understand the present G. N. depot agent has resigned and that Mr. Nickerson has been offered his old position here. Let us hope that he decides to accept.