

J. V. Ober Buys Shop

A deal was closed yesterday whereby John Ober becomes the owner of Rasmus Olson's blacksmith shop. Mr. Ober hails from Ada, Minn., where he resided till the fall of 1919 when he came to Hannaford. Since then he has been employed at the shop of which he is now the proprietor. He is a first-class blacksmith, and we are glad to learn that he has decided to locate here.

Mr. Olson feels that he needs a rest after many years of hard work, and, with his family, intends to go to his native land, Norway, some time in the summer for an extended visit, and if he finds conditions there favorable may decide to remain there.
