

During the heavy wind storm on the 9th inst. Mrs. Aug. Palm's straw pile blew over burying several of her cattle. All were gotten out alive except a registered Shorthorn bull three years old. As she carried insurance written by William Angus she received prompt settlement for the animal.