

Sutton Reporter: Hans Simensen states that his son Arthur is making good in his new position as branch manager for the DeLaval people. Although he has been with them a short time, he has already received a substantial increase in salary.