

Sentinel-Courier: O.J. Stevens and S. A. Rekedal pulled off a head-on collision near the Thune farm north of here Friday. They couldn't see each other owing to the snow on the wind-shields, and the cars, an Elgin Six and a lowly Ford, were quite badly battered. The principals in this auto tragedy were not hurt, walked toward Binford, flagged the train as it came along, and enjoyed a real ride home.
