

Willie Thompson while coming to Karnak in an auto for his sister, broke down on the Great Northern rail road track. By aid of the section men he succeeded in getting off the main line, where his auto is standing waiting repairs.