

Several of the soldier boys from this vicinity who have taken part in some of the fiercest fighting of the war are now back in this country. Rev. P. A. Thoreson received word Sunday that his son Phillip arrived in New York April 25th, Christ Kjelson has heard from his son Clarence, that he was on his way across, and Hans Simensen got a letter Sunday stating that Victor had landed in this country on Easter Sunday. Alfred Swingen and Nick Cederson are already in camps in this country, and in a very few days they will all be home. Tony Peterson and Walter Thoreson are among those who are so unfortunate as to be compelled to remain in the service for some time yet; the former in the army of occupation in Germany, and the latter as military police at Liverpool, England.
