

Rev. P. A. Thoreson is still confined to his home with the flu. This is the second time he is suffering from this disease so he is certainly getting more than his share of this affliction.