

Private Chester Wallum arrived home Thursday from Camp Dodge where he received his official discharge. Private Wallum served six months in France and received numerous wounds while in action including the loss of one eye. Otherwise he is feeling fine and is very glad to get home again.