

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Chas. H. Peterson was a county seat passenger Friday.

Eric Heyerdahl left Wednesday for Valley City for a few days' visit there.

Be sure and take home a 100-lb. sack of Oyster Shells. Farmers Store, Walum, have it on hand.

Mrs. John L. Mikethun left Wednesday for Valley City to visit with relatives there. She returned home Friday.

Be sure not to overlook the prices we have on our Men's Leather Vests and Sweaters. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum.

Mrs. M. O. Wallum went to Bismarck Thursday to visit at the home of her daughter.

New spring's goods arriving every day. Our prices will astonish you. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum.

Miss Selma and Victor Wallin from Montana are visiting at the Wallin farm east of town.

If it is COFFEE you want why call on us and we can supply your wants. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co.

H. J. Carroll, Andrew Wogland and Fred F. Butler went to Cooperstown Monday.

The Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., at Walum handle the Foot Schulse Co's shoes and can fit you out in size and price.

Chester Wunderlich arrived Monday from Jamestown to attend to some business here. He left again Wednesday for Jamestown.

We can take your order for Bran or Middlings. Call and get our prices. Farmers Store, Walum.

Geo. Holsteh spent the time between trains at Hannaford Tuesday transacting business.

E. W. Everson spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Tougas returned Tuesday to their home at Shepard, having spent a few days here visiting relatives.

Yes, we handle the well known Titan Tractor which sells for $1600. Call and place your order early. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum.

Miss Sylvia Hovland left Tuesday for Noonan to take up her work as school teacher there. The schools have been closed for some time on account of the flu.

Phone or leave an order for your binder twine. We handle the McCormick, Deering or Plymouth. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie B. Coen returned Thursday from Marinette, Wis., where they were called on account of the sickness of Otto Hoffman.

Wm. Nelson arrived Monday from Cooperstown for a short visit with friends here. Mr. Nelson left Tuesday for Chicago for medical treatment.

Theo. Sommerfield left Tuesday for Embden, N. Dak., after having been here a couple of weeks as the tonsorial artist. Mr. Sommerfield preferred to locate in his home town rather than remain here. It is expected that it will be but a short time, however, until the vacancy will be filled by another man.