

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Erik Heyerdahl left Saturday for Valley City.

For quality merchandise come to the Farmers Store, Walum.

E. W. Iverson left Saturday for Fargo to get his Chalmers Car which has been stored there over winter. Mr. Iverson expects to drive the car back.

If you are always used to good coffee why call at the Farmers Store Walum, they have good coffee.

Fred F. Butler went to Rogers Saturday for an over-Sunday's visit with relatives there.

For dress goods, gingham, percales light or dark, voiles, laces, ribbons, embroideries, look over the line at the Farmers Store, Walum.

Oscar Strand arrived Saturday from St. John, N. D., to enter the employ of the Motor Inn as mechanic.

Call and look over the Moline Tractor and see that they have the makings of a good tractor. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum.

Mrs. Gilbert Trangarud and children arrived Saturday from Binford to visit with her relatives here.

Now is the time to get a plow, we have the Best Ever and the P. & O Plow, Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Hannaford and Walum.

Henry Hanft and family arrived Friday from Edmunds, N. D., by auto to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Grover Campbell.

We carry a complete line of farm machinery so that you can get just what you want in plows, drags, drills or any piece of farm machinery that you will need. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum and Hannaford.

John L. Micklethun left Wednesday evening for Fargo to be with his daughter who is at the hospital there and is to have an operation.

Grover Campbell was at the county seat between trains Tuesday.

Chester Wunderlich went to Jamestown Monday on business, returning here Tuesday. He made the trip by auto.

For good and stylish shoes get them at the Farmers Store, Walum.

Rev. P. A. Thoreson was down from Hannaford Wednesday, calling on friends here.

We carry a stock of men's rain coats for spring and would like to have you look the line over. Farmers Store, Walum.

Mrs. Arne Hoyland and daughter were shopping at Cooperstown between trains on Tuesday.

When you buy your spring's groceries why make out your list and call at the Farmers Store, Walum, and have them fill it out. You will save money.

Mrs. F. Toenberg and two children came down from Jessie Tuesday to call on friends here. Their stay was only short as they returned to Jessie Wednesday.

Miss Laura Fogderud left Monday for Cleveland where she is teaching school, after spending Easter at her home east of Walum.

Mrs. Erik Rud left for Valley City Wednesday evening after spending a week at the John Micklethun home west of town. Mrs. John Micklethun has been ill and Mrs. Rud helped out there during her illness.

In order to have a new drill order it to-day and you will have one and if you wait you will not be able to get a new MONITOR PRESS DRILL. Just a few left. We also have the Kentucky High Wheeled or Press. Farmers Co-Op. Merc. Co., Walum and Hannaford.

Miss Leia Campbell left Tuesday for Fargo to resume her school work at the D. B. C. after having spent Easter at her home here.

John Broten arrived Monday from Rogers for an over-nights stay with friends here. He left Tuesday morning for Glenfield to get his car which he expected to drive back to Rogers.

BUICK

VALVE IN THE HEAD MOTOR

1920

We have the touring car and roadster models on hand and will be glad to show them. Deliveries later in the season will be practically impossible on account of the heavy demand for BUICKS. Better come and get one while it is possible.

Price $1595 f. o. b. Flint, Mich

GOODRICH tires and tubes in all sizes. Ford and other accessories