

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Walum and vicinity has again shown we are in the game of war with the Kaiser to a victorious finish. This time we go "Over the top" with $10,250.00 subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan received at Walum with still more coming in. Solicitors report many are taking more than their allotment.

Rev. Miller of Wimbledon held services following Sunday School in the hall Sunday, having exchanged for the day with Rev. Morange of Dazey.

Mary and Arnold Stromme left last Saturday for Fargo to visit with their mother who is recovering from an operation at St. Lukes hospital. They returned home Monday.

Geo. J. Jacobson and Carl F. Werner arrived home from Fargo Saturday with a new Oakland Six. Messrs. Jacobson and Werner have taken the agency for the Oakland and Oldsmobile cars in this territory.

Mrs. J. O. Wallum assisted at the store Monday while Mr. Werner canvassed the surrounding country for subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan.

E. W. Everson left Monday for Valley City on business. He returned home Wednesday.

John Overby was a county seat passenger Thursday.

Ole Broten has purchased a new Oakland Six from Jacobson & Werner.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson motored to Valley City Thursday evening.

Rev. Morange will hold Junior church service especially for the little ones Sunday, April 28, immediately following Sunday School. The subject will be "The Flag" and all of the little folks should be present.

Miss Carrie Larson, Mesdames Werner, Wallum and Jacobson, and Chas. Weiseman motored to Cooperstown Friday.

Rev. Sweger, of Cooperstown, was in town Friday in the interest of boosting the sale of War Saving and Thrift Stamps in this locality. Get yours at the post office or depot.