

WALUM NEWS NOTES

E. W. Everson returned Thursday from Wheaton where he attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, Joe Benno.

Theodore Liljongron arrived here Friday from Minneapolis to visit at the home of his sister Mrs. Bert Campbell.

Do all of your hauling during the fall months by using a MAXWELL MOTOR TRUCK sold in this territory by the Motor Inn, Walum.

J. W. Canfield arrived here Tuesday from Lark, N. D., coming here to ship his household goods to Lark where the Canfield's expect to make their future home.

le Pederson arrived here last Wednesday from Duluth where he has held a position with a boat line for some time. Mr. Pederson expects to remain in this community during the fall months after which he expects to return to Minnesota and reside on his 80-acre farm there.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson left last Monday for South Dakota where they expect to enjoy an outing at some lake there, being the guests of P. L. Higgins, state agent for the Dakota Life Insurance Co., who is entertaining his many agents and their wives.