The J. E. Jacobson family, Prof. and Mrs. Peterson of Dazey, visited at the home of Carl F. Werner Sunday.

Four Walum farmerettes, garbed in overalls, advanced on a near-by field of barley owned by James Rasmussen, Saturday evening and in three hours had set up 35 acres of the barley boquets. Mr. Rasmussen knew nothing about having the fair ones setting up the barley until the work was completed. Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson, Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Justin Wallum and Miss Lela Campbell composed the party and reported they were feeling fine when they came in.

G. A. Gunderson arrived Tuesday from his home in California to visit with friends and relatives in this vicinity.

F. Toenberg came down from Jessie Saturday evening to spend Sunday at home.

Mark Hoffman was a Hannaford passenger Saturday.

Henry Lewis has been helping out at the Farmers Store temporarily, or until a new clerk can be secured.

The first threshing done in this vicinity was done on the Nels Olson farm east of Walum Thursday afternoon. Barley and oats were the grains threshed, with a reported good yield. Chas. Weiseman did the threshing with one of his outfits.

During the past week eighteen ladies received material for Red Cross work. There is plenty of material for all who wish to sew or knit, to provide comforts for the boys "over there." Call at the home of the chairman of supplies any time or at the Red Cross work room Friday afternoon and work will be gladly given to all.
