

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Axel Everson went to Hannaford Wednesday.

Mrs. C. A. Evenson was at Hannaford between trains Wednesday.

The place to buy your Christmas gifts, Farmers Store, Walum.

Johnny Walum was a Hannaford passenger last Monday.

Hans Holme was here from Valley City Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Larson and daughter Ermie went to Fargo Tuesday evening.

Mr. Albert and Miss Clara Swenson went to Valley City Monday for a brief stay there.

Mr. Erik Heyerdahl went to Valley City Saturday for a brief stay with his family there.

Mrs. Grover Campbell arrived Thursday from Fargo to spend a couple of days here.

Reihald Peterson went to Valley City Thursday to do some Xmas shopping.

You will always find an appropriate gift at Campbell Bros. Hardware Co., Walum.

Geo. J. Jacobson left Wednesday for Fargo and the Twin Cities on a business mission.

Misses Lily and Elsie Wunderlich were at Hannaford between trains Wednesday.

Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson left Friday for Fargo where she expects to spend a few days visiting Miss Lela.

Mrs. C. A. Evenson spent the time between trains at Hannaford last Monday having some dental work done.

Torgor Sabby, Carl Ekstrand and Mrs. Anna O. Sad were at Coopers-town between trains Tuesday in connection with a law suit.

Mrs. J. P. Danielson and Miss Maggie Hanlan arrived Tuesday from Minot where they visited with friends for a week.

Mrs. Gilbert Heyerdahl and children went to Valley City Tuesday for a few days visit with relatives there. They returned home Saturday.

Hotel Bar

Greetings of extended to all friends, and invi
your much app
age. Also an in who have not b in the past to

Agents for Far

Geo. Bjo

George R. Rolseth returned home Thursday having spent a couple of weeks on business and visiting relatives in Fargo and Minneapolis.

Remember the Christmas program and festival in the Walum Hall Tuesday evening, Dec. 23rd given by the Walum School. A good program has been prepared and a nice Christmas tree with candy and apples for all. You are cordially invited. Turn out so the little ones can have a good time.

A gift, its kind, its value, and appearance; the silence or the pomp that attends it; the style in which it reaches you, may decide the dignity or vulgarity of the giver.