

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Clifford Wogaland returned from Valley City last Monday where he had some dental work done.

E. W. Everson spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Monday.

R. M. Stee came up from Valley City last Monday to look after the construction work on the new electric line being constructed by the Dakota Engineering & Construction Co.

Mrs. John Overby went to Cooperstown last Monday where she spent the time between trains shopping.

Senator John L. Micklethun left Monday for Bismarck to fill his seat at the special session of the legislative body.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Werner entertained a number of young people last Monday evening in honor of the birthday of E. W. Iverson. The evening was spent in playing parlor games after which a delicious lunch was served.

Call at our store and get one of our 1920 calendars, Campbell Bros. Hardware Co., Walum.

Miss Oline Odegaard left Tuesday for Audubon, Minn., where she will visit with relatives for some time.

Johnny Wallum went to Cooperstown Tuesday spending the time between trains there.

Pete Grotting went to Cooperstown Tuesday on business.

Remember to go to the Farmers Store, Walum, when you wish to select Xmas gifts and do your shopping early in order to have a chance for a good selection.

Miss Lola Campbell arrived home from Fargo Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving at home. She returned again to Fargo Saturday to resume her schooling there.

E. W. Everson, Andrew Wogaland, Alf Juell, Oscar Storlie and J. W. Canfield were Hannaford visitors from Walum Wednesday.

Mrs. C. A. Evenson was at Hannaford between trains Wednesday.

Grover C. Campbell left Wednesday for Edmunds to look after some business matters.

Miss Lily Wunderlich left Wednesday for Wimbledon after having spent a week visiting at her home here.

Eugene Markwood went to Cooperstown Thursday to have Thanksgiving dinner with relatives there.

Marvin Wallum was a Binford passenger Thursday.

Misses Laura and Eva Fogderud arrived from Medina Thursday to spend their Thanksgiving vacation at home. They returned to Medina Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Everson was a Dazey passenger Thursday.

Herman Pederson and neice Miss Mary Stromme returned Friday from Fargo having been there for medical attention.

Fred F. Butler went to Rogers Saturday to spend the week end with relatives there.

E. W. Iverson and Fred F. Butler went to Jessie Thursday to have have Thanksgiving dinner at the Toenberg home there.

The Farmers Store at Walum is now displaying a large assortment of Christmas Goods.