

D-WILL

st as important in business
year as it is at Christmas.
rnak State Bank is busy
r guarding and creating stitution.

STATE BANK

$15,000.00

CREDIT SERVICE

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Mrs. Andrew Nelson was a Hannaford passenger Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvie Wunderlich spent the time between trains at Hannaford Monday.

Grover Campbell left Thursday for Jamestown.

Edward Hoffman was a Cooperstown passenger Monday.

Mrs. Julius Larsen and Miss Ernie Larsen were at Cooperstown between trains Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Campbell arrived Saturday from Jamestown. They will live in a suite of rooms over Mr. Campbell's pool room.

Mrs. J. P. Danielson, Mrs. O. A. Gilbertson and Miss Myrtle Everson spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Thursday.

Miss M. E. McDonnell left Friday for her home at Detroit, Minn. Miss McDonnell is teaching the Goplen school east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson returned last Monday from Fargo where they spent a few days on business and visiting friends.

Remember the Christmas tree and program given by the Walum School Tuesday evening, Dec. 23rd in the Walum Hall.

Miss Margaret Meyers visited friends here Tuesday. She returned to her home at Dazey on the evening train.

Miss Sylvia Hovland arrived Saturday from Noonan, N. D., where she is teaching school. Miss Hovland expects to spend her Christmas vacation here with her parents.

Chester Wunderlich has shipped his household goods to Jamestown and expects to move his family there shortly after the first of the new year. Mr. Wunderlich left Saturday for Jamestown to prepare for the coming of his family.