

• WALUM NEWS NOTES •

W. W. Bothwell was a Jessie passenger Wednesday.

Mr. Bert Campbell went to Fargo Monday on business.

Patronize our advertisers. Make it a resolution.

Jas. Bothwell left Thursday for Cooperstown to visit with relatives.

Mrs. Oscar Storlie spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Monday.

Miss Evelyn Bowers left Wednesday for her home at Fingal to spend Christmas.

E. W. Everson and Andrew Wogland were Hannaford passengers Monday.

Miss Audrey Medley went to Jessie Monday to visit at the Toenberg home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Baker came up from Fargo Thursday and are visiting at the Jacobson home.

Raymond Newport arrived Wednesday from Oklahoma for a visit with friends here.

Mr. Floyd Campbell left Monday for Logansport, Ind., where he expects to remain the rest of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Trangsrud of Binford visited relatives here the past week. They returned to Binford Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Broten went to Cooperstown last Monday where they spent the time between trains shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Everson left Tuesday evening for Menanga, Minn. where they will visit relatives for a while.

E. W. Iverson left last Monday for Fargo where he expected to visit with relatives for a while before going to his home in Minnesota to spend Christmas.

Fred F. Butler went to Rogers Wednesday for a visit with his brother during Christmas. He went from Rogers to Jessie Friday and visited between trains at the Toenberg home there.

E. W. Everson returned home Wednesday from Fargo where the I. V. A. fighting squad ended their series of meetings Monday, the 22nd. Mr. Everson was one of the squad which covered the state.

Miss Myrtle Everson went to Jessie Friday to visit at the Toenberg home. She returned home Saturday and was accompanied by Mrs. Toenberg and two of the children who visited over Sunday with friends here.