

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Winnifred Tougas left Monday for her home at Shepard having been here a few days visiting relatives.

E. W. Everson was a Hannaford passenger last Monday.

Christ Klink left Tuesday for Valley City on business. He returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wallum entertained a number of their friends Wednesday Evening to a delicious six o'clock supper after which friendly conversation was indulged in until 11 o'clock when a dainty luncheon was served including ice cream. Those present departed for their homes about 12:30 and all expressed themselves as having had an extra good time.

Eugene Markwood and Willard Nelson went to Cooperstown Thursday to visit relatives.

Misses Selma and Minnie Olson went to Cooperstown Friday to attend a teachers' conference held there.

Geo. Medley and Miss Mary Peterson were at Cooperstown between trains Saturday.

Albert Swenson, Mrs. Erik Heyerdahl and Carl Heyerdahl went to Valley City Saturday where they will attend the funeral of Mrs. Swen Swenson—held Monday, Feb. 17th.

Private Chester Wallum arrived home Thursday from Camp Dodge where he received his official discharge. Private Wallum served six months in France and received numerous wounds while in action including the loss of one eye. Otherwise he is feeling fine and is very glad to get home again.

Carl Heyerdahl arrived home Wednesday from New York where he was released from the Navy. On his way home he stopped at a number of cities to see the sights. Carl was training for a Naval officership but an opportunity for release came and he decided he would come home to help his folks on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Werner and Miss Ermie Larson left Monday for Minneapolis where they will spend some time visiting relatives.

F. Toenberg came down from Jessie Friday to spend the week end with his family here.

James Bothwell was a Cooperstown passenger Monday.

Mrs. Andrew Fogderud spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Monday.