

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Arvie Wunderlich was a business visitor at Cooperstown Tuesday.

John L. Micklethun and son Leonard left for Fargo Wednesday where Leonard was to report for duty in the aviation corps, in which he just recently enlisted, while attending the School of Science at Wahpeton.

Mrs. Ben C. Stromme went to Fargo Wednesday to consult with her physician regarding an ailment. She returned home Friday but will have to go to Fargo at some later date and have an operation before she can expect to improve.

Miss Clara Rasmussen visited with her sister Mrs. Carl Sletten at Hannaford between trains Thursday

Representative E. W. Everson returned Thursday from Bismarck where he has been for the extra session of the legislature.

Swen Swenson arrived home from Valley City Thursday where he had been to see his father.

It is a pleasure to note how generously the community are donating articles of value for the Red Cross Sale to be held in the Walum Hall, Thursday, Feb. 14, at 8 o'clock.

The refreshment committee is hard at work arranging things so as to care for the extra large crowd which is expected for the event in a very efficient manner. Don't miss this Sale as it may be your opportunity to get just what you have been looking for. There will be a big supply and a great variety of articles offered to the highest bidder. Show your patriotism by your presence.

Edward Hanlan returned Thursday from St. John, N. D., where he was called on account of his mother's illness. He reports her condition improving.

Melvin Heyerdahl returned Thursday from a brief visit with friends and relatives at Valley City.

E. O. Wallum transacted business at Cooperstown between trains Friday.

Wm. Anderson went to Hannaford Friday to meet his wife and children who came from Luverne where they have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rasmussen.

Mrs. M. O. Wallum is reported on the sick-list.

Miss Minnie Olson, who teaches the Goplen school came in to visit her sisters Saturday.

The Young Peoples Society will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Everson Saturday evening, Feb. 9th.

Make it a point to purchase at least one Thrift Stamp a week or better yet buy a war savings stamp each month. The post office and the depot are the places to get them.

The Red cross ladies commenced the sewing of hospital garments this week, having completed the knitted articles. They meet each Saturday afternoon in the Hall. Lunch is served to all for the small price of 10c. Everybody welcome.